For example, Jailbreak offers a premium feature which allows players to purchase more life points. As the game is free, there is no way for them to gain XP in the traditional sense. Instead of implementing XP via cash or coin drop-rates (as would be done in a game that relies on premium features), they offer more life points as a way to make it easier for players if they choose to purchase them. Free games also don't have an option of offering premium features that modify their economies or XP systems. Therefore, they usually offer only the default system as an option for non-Premium members.

Other things that need to be changed or fixed: Change the sound of the hook it is not loud enough and sometimes you can't hear it. So you just have to guess where the enemy is. Make an AMA thing just like Reddit but for developers so we can ask them questions and they will answer them. This will give players some more insight on why stuff isn't in game yet or why stuff is in game. It will also give players a chance to be more involved with the company and make them feel like they are actually doing something. This would also help with bug reports and glitches because then we could ask questions about what's happening and how to fix it.

The developers of Roblox use the "Terms of Service" and "Privacy Policy" to monitor accounts for violations to these rules, also using the "Report Abuse" feature where other players can report any rule breaking or inappropriate content to moderators.

ROBLOX is among the few websites that provide analytics data on their members. This data is collected from the number of visitors, members and games played. Many large groups have been created to publicize the statistics of ROBLOX. One such group is "We Hate Fake Players", which regularly posts ROBLOX statistics on its profile.[43]

On July 26, 2018, ROBLOX warned its users about several scams on Roblox that are being advertised on YouTube. They were shown to have included links to pirated, unlicensed games, which are at risk of having their ROBLOX accounts banned due to the unauthorized distribution of their intellectual property.
