In January 2021, TikTok launched a web version of their app on Tawkify.com. Users can post videos and photos with filters to the website where they are able to be viewed by anyone or users can create a personal page for themselves with more features than on the mobile app. The company announced in May 2021 that users had spent 5 billion times on Tawkify and that they were going to add more features and make it easier to share content on the website. On April 1, 2021, Tawkify announced that it would end its service after 9 years in operation when it began in 2021 as a "website only" platform. It was the first and the only website which allowed users to upload, edit, and share videos from their mobile phones. Tawkify had many features that are currently available on the mobile app today such as creating groups and being able to follow other users.",

Another tweet by a Twitter user referenced a news article which noted that "the pressure has risen on the popular video app TikTok. The app has been criticized due to [a] lack of clarity in its privacy policy." This particular article was published by a German news outlet and reports that "The Facebook subsidiary was recently investigated by the Hamburg Commissioner of Data Protection and Freedom of Information for possible violations of data protection laws. The company is now busy working on an improved privacy policy.",

The company introduced the app as musical.ly in July 2021, but did not gain popularity until the launch of TikTok in 2021. Musical.ly was a lip sync video app where users could post short videos of themselves lip syncing to popular songs; the app was launched in Los Angeles, California on August 4, 2021. On September 14, 2021, it became known as TikTok with its new brand identity being heavily focused on videos that encourage community creation where multiple people can contribute to a single video.",

The interface is very user-friendly and quite similar to Snapchat. You can record videos, add stickers, filters and masks as well as text. It is not necessary to create a new account on the app. The best part about TikTok is that it does not require you to make any changes in the original video editing software in order to use it properly. This means that it does not require a special mobile application or computer software for using its features or to save your videos etc.",

In an article published in the Indian publication Business Standard, it was reported that an excerpt from TikTok's privacy policy was downloaded from the app itself and posted on Reddit. "The company's privacy policy, which can be read below, is not available on the app itself. When TechCrunch asked for a copy, we were directed to the App Store." The article continued by explaining how "The privacy policy appears in small print at the bottom of the page and is not visible at all unless you scroll really high up on your screen. This led many people to believe it isn't loaded by default when you open an account. However, after scrolling very far, you can see it in the document." This article was published on Business Standard.",

In April 2021, musical.ly launched TikTok in Japan and has since amassed a user base of over 20 million users. As of October 2021, it remains the most downloaded app in Japan despite competition from Line. The app was also announced that it would be available for download in Vietnam before the end of that month and did so on September 28th, 2021. Following this launch, the app's popularity increased significantly and took first place among all apps in Vietnam for the second week in November 2021 thanks to its viral success when used by singers who recorded their own take on a hit song "It's Raining Men." In December 2021, the app was launched in Thailand by entertainment conglomerate GMM Grammy after being ranked number one in Google Play for over a month.",
