In 2015, the game gained attention when a player won a card pack as part of a charity raffle. The player was awarded the card "MYSTIC MINE" by developer United Pixelworkers after taking part in an event via their Twitter account. Mike Miller, the developer of the mobile game, confirmed on his Twitter page that it is an actual card for sale in their store and since then has made appearances in real-world merchandise and as part of cards used in tournaments.", Fun by lizzykitty77 on 2018/06/14 03:59 This game is fun and addictive you can win prizes and get free coins but there are to many adds. It takes a long time just to level up and get coins. But otherwise it's a great game!",

Good but needs work by MadJoeDandy on 2016/02/16 14:50 Haven't played this in a while but seems like it hasn't been updated much since iOS 8 was introduced. There are a lot of ads but not the annoying adds found in some other games. I get that you need money to keep it running but includes really not necessary. The game is fun and it's OK. It's hard to get rid of those stupid ads though",

In March 2018, United Pixelworkers announced that in addition to adding new features and content to "Coins & Curses 2" such as a higher level cap and additional cards, they were also working on a PC version of the game titled "Coins & Curses Adventure". This title will be an "RPG style" adventure game based around a similar theme.",

On July 24, 2016, Moon Active released Coin Master: Puss in Boots "(Kasegi 2: Bukini no Tane)" for iOS as a paid app (it is not available on Android). This "Coin Master" title features an updated version of the popular video game "Puss in Boots". The game was released in Japan initially as part of Moon Active's "Coin Masters" series. However, this version of the game was never released outside Japan. This version contains microtransactions which can be removed by paying $4.99 for an ad-free version. The user review for Coin Master: Puss in Boots is composed of 4.5 out of 5 stars (out of 1 vote) from 1 user, with a user rating of 5 out of 5 stars (out of 1 vote).",
