The art-style is that of a retro style 8-bit game and the stages in the PC version are represented by a 2D top-down perspective where the player controls their character using a keyboard, mouse or touch pad. The mobile versions are more casual and use intuitive finger gestures instead of keys to move through gameplay. The mobile versions have 3D artwork rather than 2D sprites while also allowing the player to interact with their environment and other characters as they play. Each coin character has its own unique abilities while all coins have different stats in speed, attack strength, maximum health points and jump ability. The player can also collect coins and turn them into gems and the player can use these to buy new items."

On January 25, 2018 it was announced that United Pixelworkers (UPI) would be developing a new version of Coin Master for iOS devices called Coin Master "Dig Deep". The game is free to download from Apple's App Store and has been released in Beta format as of February 2018. UPI will also be releasing a new version for Android which will be based on the original Coin Master game but this time with 3D artwork similar to that of the mobile version."

The online version of "Coin Master" was featured in a post on the website Kotaku in which it was described as a "decent distraction". The iOS version of "Coin Master" received an average score of 3.5 out of 5 (out of 46 ratings) with the users giving it an average rating of 4.3 out of 5.0. The Android version received an average score of 3.6 out of 5 (out of 7 ratings) with users giving it an average rating of 4.2 out of 5.0. The Coin Master series has been met with generally positive reception from users. The iOS version of "Coin Master" has been downloaded over 4000 times and has a rating of 4.1 out of 5.0 on the App store."

On July 30th, 2017 version 1.0.29 was released for iOS and Android devices including gameplay updates and bug fixes. The game has been featured in multiple media publications, including: A number of real-world cards are used as the game's currency. Those cards include: In addition to the above, Mike Miller has also mentioned that there may be a coin card due to popular demand. The developers have stated that they would be open to "extend the universe" of "Coin Master" with another game in the future if interest and support were shown from fans of the original."

In March 2018, United Pixelworkers announced that in addition to adding new features and content to "Coins & Curses 2" such as a higher level cap and additional cards, they were also working on a PC version of the game titled "Coins & Curses Adventure". This title will be an "RPG style" adventure game based around a similar theme."
