Roblox uses multiple methods of advertising. They first started advertising on websites like Nickelodeon, but they have moved to focusing on social media sites like Facebook and Twitter.[66] Roblox also primarily advertises at gaming conventions such as E3 and Minecon. Roblox has an official YouTube channel on which they occasionally stream live events called "Developer Live", where Roblox employees give sneak peeks of upcoming features.[67] They have also recently released a list of YouTubers that are apart of their Developer Program called the "Roblox Ambassador Program". These YouTubers are able to test new features in Roblox before anyone else with the exception of Google employees.

On July 10th, 2018 the game was removed from the ROBLOX website and replaced by a non-game item called "Anthem". It is unknown why it was removed. On November 15th, 2018, ROBLOX released a new work-in-progress game on Steam named "Anthem". It was revealed that the company decided to release this new version of the game after listening to many negative comments about its original version.[89] On November 23rd 2018, it was announced that the game would be released for free for everyone due to its many issues.

Roblox allows its players to promote their games on other websites such as Fiverr and UpWork. American citizens have to file an extension if their promoted games are relevant to them, but the rest of the world does not.
