After releasing Coin Master: Space Invaders on iOS, Moon Active released Coin Master for Android which could be played either offline or online. This version of the game contained in-game advertisements and micro transactions which could be removed by paying $3.99 for an ad-free version. The user review for Coin Master for Android is composed of 3 out of 5 stars, with a user rating of 4 out of 5 stars (out of 1 vote).", Coin Master was generally received well by reviewers. Some praised the concept, artwork and its ability to provide both entertainment and nostalgia. Joystiq referred to it as a "trippy looking game" in their review. This sentiment was echoed by Gametrailers who referred to it as "unique". Other critics felt it was too similar to other games, especially "Tetris" and its clones, which were described as being overplayed in general.",

Won't let me watch a video by Halvpony on 2017/11/24 22:17 This game is great. It's not the same as before because the coin and gem system but it's still fun to play and a good time waster. It's just that when I try to watch a video to get coins or gems, the ad never plays! I'll keep trying though because I love this game so much.",

The first group of "card packs" was released through United Pixelworkers' Facebook page on August 1, 2016. These card packs were formerly available through a special offer for 33% off the base price. The first card pack was available to those who had already purchased a premium pack in "Coins & Curses 2" and could purchase two additional premium packs for their existing account. For new users it was a one time purchase that could be used across multiple accounts on both mobile and PC versions of Coin Master and Coins & Curses 2. The cards were originally released as an exclusive offer for United Pixelworkers' first anniversary.",

At its launch it had received over one million downloads on Google Play alone. In addition to this milestone it has also been downloaded over 1 million times on Steam and over 1 million times from iOS devices including iPad, iPhone and iPod Touch at its initial release. The mobile versions of the game have had over 10 million downloads to date.",
