In an article published by Business Insider, it was alleged that "ByteDance is currently valued at $28 billion following its IPO earlier this month. And while the company's revenue grew to $1.2 billion last year, as a whole, it lost money – $830 million." This article was published on Business Insider."

On February 24, 2021, the second season of "Funny or die presents" was released on the app. "Funny or Die Presents" is a popular series hosted by comedian Ellen DeGeneres and features different celebrity guests each week. The cast for the second season include different celebrities such as Michael B. Jordan, Wiz Khalifa, SZA and others."

In May 2021, U.S. Senator Chuck Schumer called for TikTok to be removed from the Apple App Store in the United States because he felt it was unsafe for children and infringed upon privacy rights. Schumer stated that it was "disturbing to discover that children are being groomed on this app," and argued that "there is no need for this app to exist in America, let alone on Apple's platform",

In January 2021, hackers claimed to have accessed another 111 million user's account information. TikTok has been criticized for the amount of time it takes for users to upload videos and therefore can affect their ability to generate revenue from them. These issues have been compounded by the company's lack of oversight and a lack of in-app review or moderation tools available for its users. As of May 2021, the app has been criticized for the amount of inappropriate and illegal content shared on its platform and the ease with which users can access this content.",

In an article published by Tech Crunch, it was alleged that "Xinhua also noted that Bytedance had announced plans to develop a "social credit system" based on its AI capabilities in 2021. It was part of a larger trend for Chinese tech companies to apply AI to social credit scores. For example, Ant Financial's Sesame Credit uses data from one's Alibaba profile to create a credit score for users." This article was published on Tech Crunch. In an article published by The Verge, it was alleged that "A lot of that AI hype has been around China's tech companies, which have been loudly touting their AI capabilities to justify valuations that are 30 to 50 times higher than the next biggest tech firm in the US." This article was published on The Verge. In an article published by Tech Crunch, it was alleged that "Bytedance is also rumored to be working with a variety of Chinese government agencies. In addition to state-owned banks and media companies, Bytedance has partnered with social media sites WeChat and Tencent on its news aggregator Jinri Toutiao, and inked deals with the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology for speech recognition software. Another deal with China's railway ministry is reportedly pending." This article was published on Tech Crunch.",

In November 2021, the company was served with a subpoena by the United States Copyright Office, which requested details about any content that was deleted due to copyright concerns and related information. This data was then analyzed by two students at Harvard Business School who found that on average, 1 out of every 10 videos uploaded via TikTok were protected by copyright. The study also found that over a one-month period (from October 14 - November 12), about 45% of all videos uploaded on TikTok were originally created by someone other than the uploaders. In a statement to "The New York Times", a spokesman for Tencent said that they were aware of the copyright issues and has appointed a member of their legal team to "actively" address the problem. They have also been working on improving the security and safety measures around the app.",
