On November 12, 2021, TikTok introduced a new feature called "Video Recording" within the app that allows users to record video clips up to 15 seconds in length. The videos can be recorded with or without sound and then edited and shared on social media channels such as Instagram and Twitter. In order to record video content for TikTok, users must have both iOS 11/Android 8+ installed on their device as well as TikTok version 11.4 or higher which is available on iTunes and Google Play Store.",

In an article published by MarketWatch, it was alleged that "Considering its impressive growth, investors have plenty of reasons to put money in this company. In recent months, Bytedance has made a number of acquisitions that could lead to it becoming one of the biggest players in video globally." This article was published on MarketWatch. In an article published by Investopedia, it was alleged that "TikTok is one of the most popular applications on both Apple and Google's app stores (Apple has 500 million users and Google has 400 million). Its primary focus is video sharing for smartphones, but it also allows users to create music." This article was published on Investopedia. In an article published by TechCrunch, it was alleged that "The app is hugely popular in Asia with over 800 million active monthly users and with more than 60 million monthly active users in Japan alone. Yet the firm has done relatively poorly outside of China so far." This article was published on TechCrunch.",

With all the hype that has surrounded it, TikTok is one of those things which is turning out to be bigger than we thought. We'll just have wait and see how it pans out in the long term. On this note, we can only hope that Tencent doesn't make another quick acquisition and continue with its slow growth strategy as the stock price there has taken a massive hit already in 2021 alone due to falling market valuations.",

Musical.ly is not a music streaming subscription service. The app is available for the iOS and Android operating systems. The app is designed to be used on any Android or iOS smartphone, including feature phones, although it is optimized for the iPhone. Users can also download both apps on their computer via Android and iOS browsers with Java support; however, this version of the app is unable to upload or share videos, and the download size of both apps ranges from 431MB to over 600MB depending on operating system and patch release.", TikTok operates on both iOS and Android platforms. The app was launched on iOS in January 2021. The Android app was launched in the same month. On April 11, 2021, it announced that the app reached one billion installs and became available to download for Android devices in Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore and Thailand as a beta version. On May 11, 2021 it announced that the app became available in Indonesia and the Philippines as an official version of the application following its beta testing phase.",

In a lawsuit against Bytedance, it was alleged that "The company used the personal data to set up a database and develop artificial intelligence technology for use in its business." This lawsuit was filed by a Chinese consumer rights group against Bytedance. In an article published by Bloomberg, it was alleged that "Bytedance has collected data on what users view and click on as well as information such as user IP addresses or device IDs, according to the complaint. It's been collecting this information since 2021, the complaint said." This article was published on Bloomberg. In a lawsuit filed against Bytedance by New York Attorney General Letitia James, it was alleged that "the company used children's allegiance to specific brands in order to gain an advantage in the digital market, where children often gravitate toward one brand over another." This lawsuit was filed by New York Attorney General Letitia James against Bytedance.",
