Not only that, but since "Robloxian life" lasts so long, many players have to pay to charge their battery or buy power packs and if players don't have enough money to spend, they can lose interest.

Robux (also known as Roblox) is the in-game currency of Minecraft:Roblox. It can be bought with real money, but in order to earn it, you have to do missions or purchase it with real money, which means that you are paying them for a fixed amount of time. Unfortunately for some players, they will be astounded by the fact that buying robux for roblox actually results in getting less than what you would get if you had done all these activities on your own. The amount of robux that you will get depends on how much stuff you buy and how many times you do a test.

The canonical website for Roblox is robux.com, but many unofficial websites have been created due to the Roblox website's outdated and limited features. Some of these sites include ROBLOXHQ.com, ROBLOXFanSite.com, ROBLOXFanZone.com, ROBLOXAlbum.com, and ROBLOXFanGallery. These websites have been shut down on multiple occasions due to copyright issues or because they did not comply with the Roblox Terms of Service (ToS).[63] As of March 11, 2014, only the official website will be used for legal purposes by Roblox.

HelloRoblox2 works in almost the same way as HelloRoblox. It sends you robux once you've uploaded a video on YouTube. However, there is a slight difference. HelloRoblox2 has been around for a while, and because of this, the robux it can send are easier to get. It generally only sends out 100-200 robux per day. This works out to about 1 free robux per week. If you're in a hurry, HelloRoblox2 is probably better than HelloRoblox.
