In December 2011, a lawsuit was filed against Roblox for copyright infringement, in which ROBLOX is accused of copying the entire codebase and game assets of "Infinity: The Quest to the End of the Universe". A cease and desist was also filed against ROBLOX in September 2012 by a head developer from the website Games Done Quick for using their copyrighted content without permission.

Roblox claims that she was fired because they found out she was using her workplace computer to dig up personal information about her co-workers and this affected her job performance. However, she claims that the only reason they are saying this is because they found out about her blog post and didn't want the bad publicity. Roblox also provided an email that Chris sent to HR in May of 2017 regarding erratic hours. She says that it was just a single complaint and wasn't fired for it.

In July 2018, Roblox had allegedly banned several high-profile creators due to the fact they made violent games. Although Roblox claims users were banned "due to improper behaviour" nothing has been proven yet. The situation is occurring in many forums and websites. In July 2018, ROBLOX put out a statement saying that they did not ban any creators, but instead were involved in a legal dispute with the people who claimed to have been banned.[82] They later said that anyone who was banned for making offensive content was "part of an organized effort by bad actors to scam our users. We have no tolerance for this behavior and we're doing everything we can to protect our community." [83]

ROBLOX has an official YouTube channel. The channel shows animated shorts for the popular game "Abobo's Big Adventure". The videos are created by the user SamoDaCar as part of a deal with ROBLOX.[44] The videos are often posted by other YouTube channels that show other parts of ROBLOX games, such as "Meet Youtuber" and "ROBLOX Adventures", where SamoDaCar comments on his channel. There's also a show called "ROBLOX Top Model", which is a spin-off about girls who compete to be the next top model. The show is hosted by user and famous ROBLOX player Xmithie. There are 6 seasons in all, with a total of 35 episodes.[45]

ROBLOX also shares user information such as email addresses with any business partners that are directly involved in the provision of ROBLOX services, such as developers and advertisers. ROBLOX reserves the right to send or share non-personal information with third parties in order to assist them in providing accurate behavioural advertising and targeting.
