The only way that these items have any value is if developers add more to the game and make them items that are actually worth something within your virtual world. If that happens then these fake items will be worth even more than what you paid for them originally because the developers added real content to the game.

ROBLOX also has a wide variety of blueprints ranging from minigames to full games. ROBLOX's game engine runs within their own website, which they call the "Roblox Platform". The platform also has its own virtual servers that are separated between each user (known as Virtual Worlds). ROBLOX licenses the servers from Sabre Corporation. This means that the servers benefit ROBLOX and not any individual person or company. A private server is solely controlled by an individual and can only be accessed through the client provided by them.[33][34]

On May 26, 2018, a group of former Roblox moderators started a petition on change.org asking for Roblox to re-hire them after they were fired. The petition currently has over 8000 signatures and the former moderators were promised that they would be getting jobs back at Roblox if their petition reached 10,000 signatures.

ROBLOX has an official YouTube channel. The channel shows animated shorts for the popular game "Abobo's Big Adventure". The videos are created by the user SamoDaCar as part of a deal with ROBLOX.[44] The videos are often posted by other YouTube channels that show other parts of ROBLOX games, such as "Meet Youtuber" and "ROBLOX Adventures", where SamoDaCar comments on his channel. There's also a show called "ROBLOX Top Model", which is a spin-off about girls who compete to be the next top model. The show is hosted by user and famous ROBLOX player Xmithie. There are 6 seasons in all, with a total of 35 episodes.[45]

Most YouTube videos will give you a link that will provide you with a free Robux reward. The amount depends on how many views the video has and the number of subscribers the user has. For example, if an account has over 1 million subscribers, they'll give an extra 2,000 robux for any views that would put them over 10,000,000 views; however this only applies before rewards are scaled down.
