"This is one of my favorite games because of the different levels and how easily it takes all my free time. It would be cool if there were different games you could play with friends online and offline. Also, I would be better off if you could actually get coins without spending your real money on them through in-app purchases or by downloading another game that requires real money. It would also be cool to have a way to actually get coins and lives without having to pay for them." "I love this game because anyone can play it, anytime, anywhere. But I just don't quite understand how they are trying to make money. You have these extra lives you win from watching videos or playing other games, but they are not enough unless you spend your actual lives on them through in-app purchases or by downloading another game that requires real money. I would give this game five stars except for the fact that I feel like there's a lot of potential wasted on how they are trying to make money. Hopefully the developers will change their ways. I would love to give this game five stars because the graphics are good, and it is entertaining.",

The developer of Coin Master has revealed that he is currently developing a version of their title for release on the Xbox console family and expects it to be released by 2019. In March 2018 Moon Active revealed that a new version of Coin Master was on the way to Facebook, however no other details were released.",

In January 2016 Moon Active announced that they had signed an agreement with Samsung to develop their tablet version for release in Q4 2016. The game was removed from the Google Play Store on July 29, 2016 however.",

On March 30, 2011, Moon Active announced on their blog that they would be releasing an iOS version of Coin Master that could be played both offline and online. On April 11, 2012, Moon Active released Coin Master for iOS which could be played either offline or online without the use of advertisements.
