In August 2021, TikTok launched TikTok Live which allows users to livestream themselves singing live while having access to up to ten other users who can follow them and comment on their performance. The feature uses the company's "TikTok for Artists" app, which the company launched in October 2021, along with a similar app for artists called TikTok Studio that they launched in June 2021.",

On May 28, 2021, Musical.ly filed a lawsuit against Snapchat for using content from the musical.ly service without permission. The lawsuit claimed that Snapchat had downloaded and used musical.ly users' photos and videos without permission; it also claimed that Snapchat copied some of the basic features of the app (such as its logo). In response to Musical.ly's initial complaint, Snapchat filed a countersuit, claiming that Musical.ly had infringed upon patent number: 6,194,126 B2 relating to SnapChat's proprietary Bitmoji feature.", Musical.ly has an analytics dashboard that can be viewed via a web browser, and it also offers an API for developers to use data gathered by the app in their own apps and services. Musical.ly went live on the European market on 25 September 2021 under the name Musical.ly Alternatives, with a broader focus on Musical.ly's provided content being a secondary concern.",
