In 2011 even mid-tier MMOs released subscription-based multiplayer games.[57] An example of this is Star Wars: The Old Republic, which charges $15 per month or $150 per year for access to its game content. World of Warcraft offers paid subscriptions through its Battle.net platform and has done since 2007.

In 2011, ROBLOX explored new territory by releasing a single player/non-multiplayer title called 'Toy Defense'. Other notable games released around this time were "Dragon Knights", "Ancient Amulet", and the new version of "Capture the Flag" titled 'Capture the Flag 2'. On February 24, 2012 ROBLOX released another downloadable game titled "Rage Parking Simulator 2012". The success of Rage Parking Simulator 2012 (Rage for short) led to the creation of more downloadable games including, but not limited to: "Hoverboard Racing", "Build to Survive", and "Mech Warfare". On March 15, 2015 ROBLOX ported Rage to mobile devices on Google Play.

In response to these criticism, the ROBLOX website says that "Roblox does not condone the use of unauthorized software programs in games." However, this is not always the case as all users have full access to all of their content. In addition, if a publisher chooses to remove a particular asset from their game they cannot be held accountable for it."
