According to a study performed by UpStream in March 2021, TikTok users are mostly female, majority from the age of 17–24. The study also found that Instagram users' content tends to be more highly produced while TikTok's audience is made up of more everyday users creating content on the app. The countries where TikTok is most popular are India, Indonesia and Brazil. 93% of all TikTok videos uploaded are generated by users.",

In another news article published by The Guardian, it was reported that TikTok's policy of removing potentially inappropriate content from its platform "is affecting users who uploaded videos innocently and inadvertently. A user with 1,600 followers posted a TikTok video of himself in his home and was then startled to receive an email from the company asking him to take down the video due to complaints. He said there were not any complaints but that the company may have correlated keyword searches with his account. He was not familiar with what terms may have been associated with his account.",

In March 2021, it was reported that some users were posting videos that had been created by other people while using someone's name as an alias. Because of this, the content creators who created the original video often reported these users and made it clear that the content belonged to them and not to the person using their name online. The following is one example where a person posted a video containing nudity under someone else's alias. The person behind the account later made it clear that they had no part in the content and that they later reported the user after noticing this:",

In an attempt to avoid its user base getting older faster than the app's overall demographic, TikTok has made changes to its algorithm so that older content will be pushed out further down in the queue. While this will push some content off the front page, it should keep a stream of new content coming through your feed while also encouraging users to explore other features. "To show the right content to the right audience at the right time, we need to make sure that we're considering personalization across all our platforms and experiences," said Deya Xu, TikTok's chief product officer. "Our work in refining our algorithms—and using machine learning to increase relevancy—is a significant part of how we are doing this.",

TikTok was created in order to help users express themselves through visual media such as music and video in a more freeform manner compared to Instagram or Twitter, where users are more confined in how much content they can post without fear of being edited out by their followers. The success of TikTok also lies in its uses as a marketing tool for brands. A study performed by UpStream found that 41% of users on TikTok are engaged with brands and 47% of users follow at least one brand. Some brands are making their own content on the platform such as Coca-Cola, FC Barcelona and others."

As an advertisement company, TikTok will need to start charging users who want to share their videos on Facebook and other platforms. This could be a major revenue source for the company, while it works on developing its brand loyalty to WeChat."

TikTok has been featured as part of "The Best Apps" series released by Google. It has also featured in Time's "50 Best Android Apps" and TechRadar's "Best Android Apps". In October 2021, "Business Insider" named the application on its list of "11 Fictional Brands That Actually Exist" and has ranked the application in the top three in the world for most-downloaded apps. The app was also placed third on Digital Trends list of "30 Overhyped Products."
