On January 31, 2018 ROBLOX introduced Community Plots. These plots were originally planned to be released on June 30, 2016, but were delayed. However, they came out on January 31 as "Floating Skyboxes". These plots are a way for ROBLOX users to make money from their creativity and imagination. You still use Robux for them. On July, 2018 ROBLOX introduced the Free-to-Play Game Pass that allows new players to play online games without having to pay ROBUX.

In April 2018, Roblox announced that it would be taking steps to address issues such as hate speech and violence. They issued a statement saying they would be working with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) to remove violent content. They also stated that they would be adding new policies and processes that they will be using to monitor issues with moderation.

Players can review other players' stats in the "Review Player" feature. The player reviewed must have interacted with the player reviewing at least once since the review request was made. A punishment system is also available for players who do not act in accordance with Roblox's terms of service or community guidelines.

Roblox is involved in a lawsuit concerning child safety on the Internet. On September 17, 2010, two brothers filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court, Southern District of California against Roblox Corporation and its founder and CEO David Baszucki. The suit alleged that the defendants failed to protect their nine- and thirteen-year-old sons from inappropriate content on Roblox that resulted in emotional distress. The suit also accuses the company of negligence for failure to monitor potentially harmful content and failure to institute parental monitoring measures. The case is known as "McDonald v. Roblox".

One of ROBLOX's main rivals is Tencent, a Chinese company. The two companies even share employees and developers, including the current admin. ROBLOX as well as Tencent are often compared to each other due to their similarities.
