In response to these criticism, the ROBLOX website says that "Roblox does not condone the use of unauthorized software programs in games." However, this is not always the case as all users have full access to all of their content. In addition, if a publisher chooses to remove a particular asset from their game they cannot be held accountable for it."

The Roblox website has undergone several changes in terms of design. All the current releases before October 10, 2010 had a different logo from the one that is currently used. The beta site is also a different color than the current homepage design. If you visit the old Roblox website [1] it will redirect you to the new Roblox website, although on rare occasions it will instead take you to an error page.

The site has been called "worthless" by users such as Brianna Wu, an independent games programmer and activist. She was also specifically referencing the site's lack of any kind of real economy.[10] There have been multiple instances where money and donations were sent to ROBLOX asking for some kind of update on a game which never came to life. She has asked for the company to be more transparent in regards to this situation and stated that she will not give them any more money until they actually deliver something.

ROBLOX announced they would be making videos, dubbed ROBLOX TV, in early 2017. They released three in total before shutting down all three channels to focus on "Builders Club". The first was a short-lived comedy show hosted by Janitorman and Aron. The second was a short-lived reality show hosted by JhonnyFive from the "Testing Grounds". The third was a sports talk show called "Game Time" in which users could discuss various topics pertaining to sports. In each of these shows, they would later add other people to the cast like WoodysGamertag in Game Time.
