ROBLOX makes it easy for users to participate in local multiplayer games. For example, a user can connect three iPads together and play the game Invader ZIM on them. There are also games where players connect their computers through WiFi and play online games with one another, such as Minecraft. You can also use RoomBuddy to track where your room members are located, so you don't have to worry about them leaving your house unsupervised.

On September 8, 2018, ROBLOX released an update that added a "New Games" section to its website. This section is separated into sub-categories for ease-of-navigation and new content coming soon. This section also functions as a "curated library" with all games listed in a searchable manner (e.g., "roblox" will bring up any game about ROBLOX, but "roblox experiment" won't).

In early October 2008, ROBLOX launched a blog that discusses game design techniques, new features and events in detail. This blog is updated regularly with posts from the ROBLOX development team as well as occasional guest posts from other entities such as users and other game developers.[41] In late November 2010, ROBLOX launched a forum with Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) regarding common problems that users face when using ROBLOX Studio.[42]

Rated 4 out of 5 by Anonymous from AWESOME!! I love ROBLOX SO MUCH!! It has all these cool games and places where you can buy stuff. It is a really fun game where you can make friends. Rated 4 out of 5 by Anonymous from Love it I've been playing this since 2006, still playing it today, I would recommend this to people 8-14. Some add ons are pricey but the game overall is great.

The site has been called "worthless" by users such as Brianna Wu, an independent games programmer and activist. She was also specifically referencing the site's lack of any kind of real economy.[10] There have been multiple instances where money and donations were sent to ROBLOX asking for some kind of update on a game which never came to life. She has asked for the company to be more transparent in regards to this situation and stated that she will not give them any more money until they actually deliver something.
