On December 20, 2016, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The bullying campaign went on for over a year until it came to her parents' attention and they contacted Roblox about it. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.

There were a lot of concerns about Robux before the update that made it easier for players to get it, but some people still believe that Robux is manipulative and favors the developers. In the "review" section, people criticize the developers for doing what they wanted to do and not caring about what people think.

Roblox is heavily criticized for being an extremely time-consuming game. A player who wishes to play it must spend several hours creating content, which other players can then download and use. This has also been called "Binding loss".

The free robux card codes are the cards that were given out to players who completed a certain action on Roblox. The player would then be able to collect the card and have it autoclaimed as soon as they logged into Roblox. Codes could be used to redeem the extra Robux and Builders Club. Codes were received through several different ways. Players could receive a code from a friend, or they could get a code from the internet. Codes were sometimes given out for certain reasons, such as attending conventions for Roblox (ROBLOX RocketCon) or writing about Roblox on your blog/website. Codes are autoclaimed when you log into your account on ROBLOX.

In February 2013, Roblox was in violation of Terms of Service that required them to have a minimum age requirement for players.[72] In December 2016, ROBLOX temporarily suspended monetizing accounts and purchases of game currency within their website after it was discovered that many users had been cheated out of money. It is known that they worked with third-party vendors to purchase a limited amount of Robux for specific accounts.[73]
