In January 2016, the Roblox developers said they will be working with an external security firm to enforce a set of rules, and would only support third-party software that is approved by their partners.

Some users have noticed that the Roblox logo is a direct parody of Microsoft's logo. The two logos are nearly identical in shape and color scheme. The only difference between the two logos is that Roblox's logo contains a "R" whereas Microsoft's does not. Another parody was made by RulaGames in 2015 called "Robux". This was a parody to show that everything on Roblox cost money.

Blocks are awarded when the user is rewarded items from certain games, such as VIP and daily bonus. They can be exchanged for ROBUX. The amount of ROBUX gained from converting blocks depends on how much you have, but the minimum is 10 ROBUX per block; for example, if you have 300 blocks, you will receive 3,000 ROBUX (300 x 10). In this way, players can use blocks to obtain ROBUX without having to purchase a Builder's Club subscription.

Spamming: Roblox has been criticized for its extreme amount of spam. Some examples include the "Free Robux" scam, where people are tricked into giving their username and password to a third party so that they can steal their Robux, and the "You Have Been Tricked" scam, which consists of the offender saying something along the lines of "DON'T TRUST. HE IS TROLLING ME."

Some people just find it hard to see how many Robux they will actually make from their personal game development because the process is difficult and lengthy that the estimated amount of time it takes just for 1 point can be up to 6 months.
