So far I haven't really enjoyed ROBLOX because of how serious it is. The game itself just isn't fun and is way too addicting for me. I know some people enjoy it because of how addicting it is but it just isn't fun for me. Why is that?

- No clear guidelines as to how the game works. There is no tutorial on how to build things or what some items do.

At some point in mid-2015, they started using blockchain technology on their games as a way to verify ownership of an in-game item or character and prevent cheating. In December 2016, they launched a new internal system which allowed users to sell their games directly from the ROBLOX catalog instead of uploading them to the website's database.

Some people just find it hard to see how many Robux they will actually make from their personal game development because the process is difficult and lengthy that the estimated amount of time it takes just for 1 point can be up to 6 months.

To create a new game, players are introduced to the Roblox engine or "R-Engine". This is the application developers use to create their own games. All of the features in Roblox are available to be utilized by developers.
