They have also created a website called ROBLOX Studios which allows users to create and upload their own videos to YouTube in order to advertise their videos as well as doing tasks that can be made money such as editing videos, building websites, etc.[47]

In 2011 even mid-tier MMOs released subscription-based multiplayer games.[57] An example of this is Star Wars: The Old Republic, which charges $15 per month or $150 per year for access to its game content. World of Warcraft offers paid subscriptions through its Battle.net platform and has done since 2007.

ROBLOX has been used in many digital projects. It was also created into the game "Pack for Hire" on the Apple App Store. The game is about viruses and viruses are put into a ROBLOX box and then put onto the other computer to infect it.

Some other ways that these generators get more traffic is through sending out promotional codes on social media sites like Twitter or Facebook while also using email marketing techniques.

They're clearly taking steps in this direction by creating special perks, abilities, etcetera for those who have purchased robux from them. They're also creating clothing items which are being sold for outrageous prices with the sole purpose of being able to differentiate those who pay from those who don't in their game. This is wrong. It's unethical and it should not be tolerated.
