In August 2018, it was reported that TikTok was under investigation by the New York attorney general's office after its investigation into several other social networking apps including Musical.ly and Bytedance's Douyin app revealed evidence of privacy violations, data leaks and predatory marketing practices. Bytedance's marketing strategy for building and growing these apps encourages users to post photos of underage children, according to the New York Times."

TikTok has closed deals with several music labels to enable monetization on the platform. The first deal was the exclusive distribution rights to its India expansion in June 2017, which will give TikTok access to 12 million Indian users. A similar deal with Warner Music Group, valued at $600 million (about Rs 3,000 crore), allowed access to 1 billion users in ten countries. In October 2016 it announced a global partnership with Universal Music Group that will allow access to more than ten million followers on TikTok in 18 countries including the US, UK and Spain."

A member of Twitter famously tweeted that "we need to get rid of tiktok" and then went on to share some additional criticisms about this particular app in a subsequent tweet. This user also made reference to a video which was shared by another Twitter user where they sarcastically referred to TikTok as "the best app evar" and then went on to describe how they had discovered that this app had violated their privacy."

As of August 2018, integration with TikTok allows users to search for podcasts directly within the app. Once a podcast is located, the user has the option of saving it for offline listening and as of April 2018, more than 870 million podcasts were available."

In another article published by CNNMoney, it was reported that "ByteDance was founded in 2012 by two Chinese tech entrepreneurs who met while studying in the US. The app has become a cornerstone of China's tech industry." It continued by reporting that "ByteDance boasts more than 200 million users worldwide and is valued at $10 billion."
