Efforts to curb the spread of predatory behavior on this app using the reporting feature have largely been unsuccessful. A news article published by The Guardian noted that "reporting features that allow users to report others for inappropriate behavior have had only limited success." Some users feel that there is little incentive to report a video since they would not be sure if any action would be taken in response to their report. There is also no clear way for a user who has been reported in error to prove that they are not being used against them in this manner. This article also noted that "According to the app, when a user reports a troubling video, it is viewed by actual people who are trained to remove any content that promotes criminal behavior. But when asked whether these people were subject to employment laws through an official employer, TikTok did not respond.",

In February 2021, it was also reported that some TikTok users who had provided their contact details for verification purposes had received a notification stating that their mobile number would be used by ByteDance for promotional purposes starting February 8, 2021. Meanwhile, others were receiving messages stating that their name would not be allowed to appear next to ByteDance's logo. Because of the fact that there appears to be no clear statement on how people are allowed to opt out of these types of promotional schemes, many have had a negative reaction to them.

The following is an example screenshot of a comment by someone who was trying to upload a video with their contact details:",
